About Easterseals Vermont and Over The Edge

Easterseals VT is dedicated to helping families throughout the state of Vermont live, learn, work, and play in their communities. We are the leading agency in the state working hand-in-hand with the Department for Children and Families to create family-centered solutions for parents and children. Easterseals VT is an independent nonprofit formed in 1985 by Vermont residents who identified gaps in services in our local communities. While we are proud to carry the name Easterseals, which has a 100-year tradition of providing quality services for children with disabilities, Easterseals VT runs independently.

Our mission, services, as well as financials, including fundraising, are determined and run locally. We rely on state and local funding, including the generosity of individual donors and businesses, to ensure our unique services are accessible to more than 1,800 children and families who receive assistance annually.

Through a diversity of programs, Easterseals VT empowers and assists parents and children to improve their lives. At the heart of all we do is our belief that families can, with sufficient assistance, address their challenges and create safety and well-being within their homes.

Our Over the Edge fundraising event offers a unique urban rappelling experience, all while supporting children and families served by Easterseals VT. The generosity of sponsors like you helps strengthen Vermont families, support at-risk youth, and create opportunities for parents and children to heal and thrive in our communities.
