Save the Date for Veterans Rally Point Ribbon Cutting in Norwich $2.5M state-of-the-art veterans service center officially opens Nov. 11, Veterans Day

WINDSOR, Conn., October 21, 2021 – Bravery. Sacrifice. Heroism. This Veterans Day takes on a particularly special meaning locally as Easterseals Capital Region & Eastern Connecticut opens the doors to its $2.5M Veterans Rally Point, 24 Stott Road in Norwich. A formal program with local, state and regional leaders, along with the partners who made this project a reality, kicks off at 3:30 p.m. followed by a reception and celebration at 4 p.m.

“This project highlights the role of Easterseals in the community, and the many partnerships that make this kind of initiative a reality,” says Ron Welch, BG (Ret) U.S. Army and Vice President of Military Services & Economic Development, Easterseals. “This is a center of excellence that not only serves a major need for all military, veterans and their families but can also serve as a model for similar types of facilities across the country.”

The 18,000 square-foot state-of-the-art facility serves military, veterans and their families with a variety of innovative services under one roof, including:

- VA Benefits Consultation
- Behavioral Health
- Employment and resume assistance
- Computer Center
- Educational & Job Skill Training
- Emergency Financial Assessments, and Financial Coaching
- Clothing Closet & Food Pantry
- Caregiver Training & Support
- Case Management
- Transitional Housing
- Peer to Peer Support Groups

Adds Easterseals President & CEO, Robin Sharp, “With this one-of-a-kind facility, all military, veterans and their families are one step away from getting the services they need with personalized case management. These veterans have offered us the ultimate sacrifice – serving our country. Now, we can offer them the necessary services needed in one place to build their quality of life and do all that we can to support them during and after their service.”
