Chris' Hot Dogs

Chris' Hot Dogs is the oldest family owned and operated restaurant in Montgomery, Alabama. Founded in 1917, Chris' Hot Dogs has been enjoyed by every walk of life. Chris' is a place where everyone, young and old, rich and poor, black and white, can dine harmoniously. This wonderful institution has had customers from every state in the Union and countless guests from other countries. Some of their more notable patrons include Franklin D. Roosevelt (who would frequently ask for a box of the world famous hot dogs as his train stopped at Montgomery's Union Station), Harry Truman, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Presidents Bush 41 and 43, Jimmy Stewart, Elvis Presley, Hank Williams, Clark Gable, Tallulah Bankhead, Whoopi Goldberg, countless sports stars and every Alabama Governor since 1917.

Featured Artist - Barbara Binford Davis

Born and raised in Montgomery, Alabama, Barbara has painted since the age of fourteen. She is a 1982 graduate of Sidney Lanier High School. She holds a B.A in Fine Art from Auburn University Montgomery.

Barbara worked primarily in the banking industry while pursuing art as an avocation with the hope of eventually becoming a full-time artist. After years of studying and painting, her dream of working as a full-time artist was realized in 2010. She has been the recipient of numerous regional and national awards for her artwork, and it can be found in galleries throughout Alabama and in South Carolina.
