Program Overview

Vocational Evaluation

This program provides a comprehensive assessment of vocational interests, aptitudes, worker traits, and a determination of work capacity. Standardized tests and work situations are analyzed to determine realistic vocational goals.

Work Evaluation

Participants gain exposure to their reported field of interest through a real work experience at a competitive job site. Information about needed accommodations and the individual's job readiness is provided. The results of the assessment are utilized to develop an appropriate rehabilitation plan.

Working Interview

Participants perform specified job functions at a competitive site where an employment opportunity exists. This enables the employer to preview the participant's work and make an informed hiring decision.

Interview Preparedness

Participants work to improve the skills necessary to successfully market their strengths during the interview process. Components include job search techniques, job application assistance, development of a resume and cover letter, conflict resolution, and ADA regulations.

Work Adjustment

Extensive vocational counseling and supervised work experiences address potential barriers to vocational goals. The participant is offered the opportunity to increase productivity and accuracy rates in preparation for competitive employment.

Placement Services

With an exceptional 63% placement rate, our Placement Specialists assist participants in procuring appropriate employment. Follow-up is conducted to help maintain employment and employer satisfaction.

Job Coaching

Job coaching is provided at the employment site for participants needing one-on-one support to assist them in learning job skills.

Employment Skills Technology Training

This program offers individuals the training needed to meet the requirements of today's entry level receptionist, administrative assistant and clerical support positions. Components include tools of the workplace, computer basics and applications, office etiquette, and organizational skills.

Supported Employment

Participants are provided assistance in selecting, obtaining and maintaining community employment. Participants are individuals with serious or persistent mental illness / substance abuse issues.

Supported Education

Participants with serious or persistent mental illness / substance abuse issues are provided assistance, to achieve a successful completion of their educational goals.

Organizational Employment

Participants are integral members of Easterseals' Social Enterprises. This includes document and data destruction by EnviroShred, Janitorial Services and subcontracted work from area businesses. All work performed at Easterseals' Vocational facility.

Janitorial Program

This specialized skill building program prepares participants for jobs in the custodial industry. Emphasis is placed on appropriate work behaviors, productivity, and good worker traits.

Veteran/Service members & Military Family Services

Within this program we have employed a holistic approach to addressing the needs of veterans and their spouse/partner. The Vocational Rehabilitation Program specializes in a supportive 1:1 customized model tailored specifically to the individuals' needs. The program includes an onsite professional clothing resource room and food pantry, as well as, resume writing, interview preparedness, job coach, permanent job placement assistance and on-going follow up.

Program Referrals

Individuals may receive services following a self-referral or referral from other agencies.

- Individuals must be authorized by parties such as the Department of Rehabilitation Services, Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services, Department of Mental Retardation, Veterans Administration, Worker's Compensation, colleges or other agencies.
- Our service providers, in conjunction with counselors, case managers, and clinicians from the referring agencies, work to develop the most appropriate service plan to achieve the most meaningful results.
